

URBAN ISLANDS vol 1 CUTTINGS

COCKATOO ISLAND

SYDNEY UNIVERSITY PRESS

We are pleased to invite you to the launch of

URBAN ISLANDS vol 1 : CUTTINGS edited by Joanne Jakovich

To be launched by Geoff Bailey,
Executive Director of the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust

With introduction by Professor Tom Heneghan, University of Sydney

Date: Thursday 17th May 2007
Location: The Steel Foundry, Cockatoo Island
RSVP essential: 10 May 2007, events@sup.usyd.edu.au or 02 9036 9958

BlighVollerNieldArchitecture The University of Sydney

HarbourTrust

ward 6

COCKATOO ISLAND in Sydney Harbour is a zone of transition and rebirth where the public can engage in the making of an incredible urban place. The URBAN ISLANDS project brings together international and local collaborators to develop strategies of engagement with post-industrial sites around the world.

URBAN ISLANDS vol 1 : CUTTINGS presents the outcomes from the 2006 Urban Islands studios on Cockatoo Island, bearing testament to the energy and ideas generated in this place.

GETTING THERE:

Sydney Ferries (1 only)
Depart: 6pm sharp, Wharf 5,
For Woolwich, Circular Quay.

GETTING BACK:

Sydney Ferries
Depart: 7:27pm, 8pm and 9:20pm
from Cockatoo Island.

Purchase return tickets before boarding at Circular Quay.

*Water taxis are available at any time: call 1300 666 484 for bookings.
Please note the fee is $25 per person or more for single passenger.*

<http://www.urbanislands.info>